

Going to a Concert

I am going to a concert!
A concert is an event where music is performed.

The concert will be at Soundbridge in Benaroya Hall.

When I arrive, I will meet my Concert Buddy, who is there to help me enjoy
the concert.

We can look at and play the instruments while we wait for the concert to start.

Someone will let us know when the concert is going to start. I can borrow an egg shaker to play along during the concert.

I can sit in a seat or on the ground, or I can stand. Other people will be there, too. They may sit around me. That's okay.

Michael Lauckner — Host & Narrator

Brittany Boulding
Breeden — Violin

Roberta Downey — Cello

I will see Michael, Brittany, and Roberta at the concert. They will be on the stage, and I will be in the audience.

Some of the music may sound loud. I can cover my ears. If I need help, I can ask in a calm voice.

I can dance to the music and be safe by not dancing too close to other people.

When the concert is over, I can say hello to Michael, Brittany, and Roberta. I can play instruments again — there will be louder brass instruments in the performance room to try. When we're all done, we'll go home.
